3.3. The organizer is able to issue a VAT invoice.

3.4. The team can give its place at the starting list over to different team until May 2nd, 2027.

3.5. It is possible to sign up for the competition until May 2nd, 2027.

4. Race course, maps, time limits, penalties.

4.1. Route's total length is approximately 100 km and 800 m of elevation gain (includes: biking – approx. 75 km, running/trekking – approx. 25 km), climbing tasks and other activities.
Above mentioned distances are approximate, they may vary depending on navigation skills and route chosen by the team.

4.2. The order of completing checkpoints will be shown at the maps. All checkpoints have equal importance. They are marked by flags with punch device. In some special cases, participants may confirm it by taking a photo and presenting it at the finish line.

4.3. The organizer provides touristic maps and other special maps. Scale from 1:5,000 to 1:30,000. Maps are made on waterproof paper. The use of maps other than those provided by the organizer, as well as GPS devices, is allowed.

4.4. Time limit is 12 hours + extra 2 hours (each extra 30 minutes commenced equals to one point (the last CP) being docked from the total amount scored by the team). Arriving at the finish line after passing of the extra hour will result in not finishing the race (DNF).
All breaks are included in the time limit.

4.5. If the team fails to complete special task, it will get the penalty whose height will be announced in the road book.
Special tasks are not checkpoints.

4.6. If the participant breaks any rule of these Rules of competition, the organizer will award time penalties adequate to the violation committed. The organizer may disqualify the team due to breaking "fair play" rules, great violations or medical reasons.

4.7. The team cannot split up on the route (apart from spots indicated in the road book). The team is obliged to presence themselves all together at the checkpoints.

5. Results.

5.1. The results are determined by:
First of all: total amount of completed checkpoints.
Second of all: time at the finish line + time penalties + bonuses.

There is no ex aequo for places 1 to 3. In this case, the result will be determined by an additional task at the finish line.

5.2. Only teams which complete at least one checkpoint will be classified.

5.3. Teams will be classified in a single category regardless of gender and the number of participants.

5.4. Classification will be based on control cards (alternatively photos from checkpoints without kites). The control card must be in a good condition, which allows to be read. The GPS track is not a proof of a presence at the checkpoint.

5.5. In the case of the absence of the kite in the spot where it should be located, it is necessary to take a picture of the spot.

5.6. Unofficial results will be published no later than on the 10th of May 2027. Participants are allowed to submit claim (personally, by email or mobile phone) within three days from the publication of unofficial results. After this time the results become official.

6. Resignation.

6.1. In case of resignation, the team must inform the organizer as soon as possible.

6.2. In case of resignation of one of the team members, other members are able to continue the race but only after organizer's allowance. Incomplete team will not be classified.
